Good?? To know some things never change!!

Depot 20 followed the same destructive pattern and implementation as its predecessors (Depots 1, 10, 14 & 16):

- Too many POC per route
- Too many POC in one cut / slot
- No key or wrong key for mailboxes, apartment buildings, etc
- one wing left empty and too many POC jammed into the centre case and other wing

And so on and so on!!

And who has the experience in writing kidnapping ransom notes??

Who would make case strips look like that? Looks like someone was cutting letters out of the newspaper and glueing them onto the case strips!!

What's more important? Taking care of an injury or handing out a letter of discipline?

Let's see:

1. Employee reports injury.
2. Supervisor hands letter of discipline to employee.
3. THEN supervisor gives ice-pack to employee!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Was that an after- thought?
